Dear:

I noted the efforts now under way to have the McGuire Bill re-referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Inasmuch as the committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce has already held long hearings on it, I would see no use in changing the reference on this measure. That would simply mean that the Judiciary Committee, which is now up to its ears in work, would probably not get around to it during the present session. This will have good attention.

Sincerely,

Everett McKinley Dirksen
