Dear:

I am grateful indeed for your generous and complimentary observations on the discussion between Senator Kerr and myself of the issues of 1952.

1952 is in truth and in fact a year of decision for America and I entertain deep convictions on the destiny of this country and the challenges which are before us.

Whatever I may have said that merits your approval comes, I assure you, from the heart and from an abiding interest in the preservation of a free system and a free country. I am deeply grateful for your encouragement.

With every good wish,

Everett McKinley Dirksen
