

MINUTES OF THE SEVENTY-FIRST MEETING OF THE JOINT REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS CALLED FOR THURSDAY,
NOVEMBER 7, 1963, AT 9:00 A.M. IN THE CAPITOL OFFICE
(H-202) OF THE HOUSE MINORITY LEADER, THE HONORABLE
CHARLES A. HALLECK

Present:

Members: Senators Hickenlooper, Saltonstall
Congressmen Halleck, Ford, Brown

Absent: The Presiding Officer, Congressman William E. Miller
Senators Dirksen, Kuchel, Morton
Congressmen Arends, Byrnes, Wilson

Also Present: Robert Humphreys, Bryce Harlow, Harry Brookshire, Robert Allett, Mark Trice

In the absence of Senator Dirksen, who was delayed because of an automobile accident, Congressman Halleck called the meeting to order at 9:18 A.M.

The agenda for the meeting was as follows:

88th Congress, 1st Session
JFK and the Farm Economy
Tuesday Elections
Other Legislative Matters

88th Congress, 1st Session

Congressman Halleck proceeded to read a prepared statement on this subject. After several minor changes the statement was approved and a copy is attached.

JFK and the Farm Economy

Senator Hickenlooper, in the absence of Senator Dirksen, read a prepared statement on this subject. It was suggested that the figures be rearranged and Congressman Ford suggested that a statement be included concerning failures of Secretary Freeman. The statement was approved and a copy is attached.

Other Legislative Matters

After questions were asked, Senator Hickenlooper gave a brief discussion of the Foreign Aid legislation now before the Senate. Congressman Halleck spoke briefly about the Civil Rights bill and stated that because of the short time left he could not see either Civil Rights or the Tax Cut legislation at this session.

Senator Hickenlooper was asked if anything was being done in regard to the Otto F. Otepka case and after discussion of this matter Bob Humphreys said he had been looking into it.

Congressman Halleck raised a question on behalf of Congressman Wilson in regard to fund raising booths at the New York World Fair. It was thought best to look more closely into the situation and, if anything is done, to definitely establish ground rules.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 9:45 A.M.
