

Folder No.Description

- 112-119 Notebook Thirty-Three (1949-52). Continued: "Cold Confusion"; "Its Official Now: What You Can Expect from the Truman Administration"; "Party Morals and Morale"; "Report on Socialized Medicine in Britain"; "What's Ahead in Fiscal Wizardry"; remarks to Rockford-Winnebago County Dinner, "Operation Victory" (11/1/49); remarks to New Trier Republicans; "Fair Deal and Farewell" (1949); remarks at Springfield testimonial (8/17/49); "The Witness...."; notes on Samuel Gompers; Scott Lucas announcement clipping; report of Mayor Chapman victory dinner, Champaign; symposium notes; general political remarks outline (1949); "On Changing One's Mind" (1949); general political remarks (1949); remarks on Kansas-McKinley Day (1/28/49); "Social Security"; "Political" (1949); "Pensions"; "The Piscadelpia Story"; "My Program" (1949); Republican organization-party crisis speech (ca. 1950); clipping about Scott Lucas; "The State of the Union"; remarks to teachers; remarks to Lincoln Rotary, "Book Nobody Knows" and to Bloomington Rotary, "Rediscovery of America"; "The New Atom is not Uranium"; "Foreign Policy"; "Tower of Babel"; remarks to New York Rotary; anecdotes and ideas; notes on foreign policy and the Marshall Plan; notes on American survival; notes on campaign issues; clippings; "On Changing One's Mind"; clipping about Lucas; "After the Marshall Plan--What?" (1950); "One Red Can Color Much Policy"; speech and radio suggestions (1950); "Balance Sheet"; remarks to South Side Businessmen; "The Unresolved Issue" (1950); remarks to Bryn Mawr Womans Club, "Which Way America?" (1950); notes on the economy; remarks to McHenry County Young Republicans (12/16/49); notes; remarks to Young Negro Republicans (12/20/49); "Present Prosperity"; "What Price Freedom?" (5/10/49); keynote remarks at Chicago IFWC (5/17/49); "Taxes"; commencement outline and remarks, "Operation Life"; remarks to Pharmaceutical Convention, Moline, "State of the Union" (1949); remarks at Appreciation Dinner for Dr. Dimmit, Farmington (5/20/49); graduation remarks at Delavan (1949); remarks to confectioners, Chicago (6/7/49); remarks to Decatur and Springfield Rotary Clubs (6/13/49); remarks at Exposition Gardens (6/14/49); "The Greater Debt"; "Turn of the Half Century" (1950); remarks to Greenvew Legion; remarks on Pekin's anniversary (8/24/49); "POW's"; "The State of the Union," Havana, (8/26/49); remarks at Chicago Real Estate Board dinner, "This Freedom" (9/14/49); miscellaneous notes; "State of the Union"; remarks to Rockford Chamber of Commerce (8/24/49); remarks to Kankakee Kiwanis-Rotary, "What Price Chaos?" (8/29/49); remarks to Rockford Restaurant Association; "You Can't Get It Wholesale"; remarks to Peoria Ad Club, "The State of the Union" (9/26/49); "1899-1949"; remarks to Tri-County School Board Dinner; Founders' Day remarks, Bradley University (10/7/49); "Grassroots and Freedom"; "Rediscovery of America"; remarks to the Peoria Knife and Fork Club, "The Near East" (10/13/49); "My Country"; remarks at Peoria Grandview Lodge's 25th anniversary (10/15/49); "What Must Be Done"; remarks in DeKalb, "The Current Scene" (10/19/49); remarks in Evanston (10/20/49).
- 120-125 Notebook Thirty-Four (1949-52). Contents: campaign remarks to Peoria County Committee (1952); Lockaett testimonial remarks (ca. 1951); clipping; "Flag Day" (n.d. and 6/14/49); "Moral Crisis"; "We are Ready for War" and clipping (1950); "State for Blackmail";
- 387 pp