

Folder No.Description

- 120-125 Notebook Thirty-Four (1949-52) continued: "Government and Politics" to the Chicago Area Career Conference (1950); remarks in Urbana; "State of the Union" to Audit Bureau of Circulation (10/20/49); "Education for Political Action" at Minnesota Workshop; "The Half Century": to civic groups (January 1950); "Tithing for Citizenship"; remarks to Park Ridge Republican Women; incomplete notes; handwritten outline for Minnesota workshop; "February"; remarks to Rock Island Rotary and Waukegan Elks; "Lincoln" to Daughters of the American Revolution; "What Price Freedom?"; remarks to Northwest Manufacturers; remarks in Pekin and Highland Park; radio, "The Congressional Record"; "Constitution-Quo Vadis"; clipping; "I am a Re-examinist" (1950); "National Defense" (1950); "Survival" (July 1950); remarks to Geneseo Chamber of Commerce; clipping; "If This is Survival"; notes on Dean Acheson's seven points; remarks about political platforms (1950); "Taft-Hartley Act"; notes; remarks to U.S. Savings and Loan League (1950); remarks at Tulsa Republican luncheon and Dinner Club (12/4/50); "The Farm Problem in a Nutshell"; "Communism"; "Taft-Hartley" remarks to Republican Veterans, Peoria (10/15/50); remarks to Normal Chamber of Commerce (3/29/50); remarks to 121st infantry (9/30/50); "Taft-Hartley Act"; "Vienna"; "The Menace of Socialism"; "The Spenders"; "Secrecy and Morals"; "Morals"; "Agriculture"; remarks on WLS (1950); "The Shape of Things to Come"; remarks to Junior Chamber of Commerce; "The Proposition is Peace"; "The Not-Me Campaign" (1950); "National Defense" to Peoria Ad Club; "Secrecy"; remarks in Rockford; "China War" (ca. September 1950); remarks on WBBM; remarks to the American Aid Society (12/10/50); clipping; remarks at Springfield Victory Dinner (12/20/50); remarks to Washington Board of Trade; "The Current Scene"; remarks to PEO, Peoria (4/25/50); remarks to Young Midwest Republicans (1950); remarks to Illinois Bakers, Chicago (5/9/50); campaign remarks in Galesburg (5/7/50); remarks to Business and Professional Women, Peoria (5/8/50); untitled notes on Harry Truman's reference to the Lincoln-Douglas debates; "Five Years and What?"; campaign remarks in Lacon; remarks on Mutual Broadcast System.
- 126-130 Notebook Thirty-Five (1949-56). Contents: "The Harsh Fact of Freedom"; remarks to the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs (5/17/49); remarks about 343 pp Abraham Lincoln (1954); remarks to the Polish National Alliance (4/17/55); remarks about Israel; notes on distressed areas legislation, NATO status treaty; remarks to the John Ericson Republican League Dinner, Chicago (3/10/56); remarks to Republican Women, Washington, D.C. (3/5/56); notes on the Middle East, John Meizner, state of the nation, Ross Siragusa, the Republican Party; remarks at a welcome home party, Chicago (8/9/55); remarks at the Park Ridge Summer Festival (8/5/55); Fourth of July remarks, Galesburg (7/4/50); remarks "I am an American Week" (5/11/49); notes on political duty, the Bricker resolution, effective speech, the Bricker resolution, spring time (March 1956), "Headlines and Tail Lines", Paul Hoffman, political data, Simon Sobeloff (July 1956), constituent mail; remarks at the Svithiod Picnic (6/24/56); remarks at the Seed Trade Convention Dinner, Chicago (6/25/56); two constituent letters; confidential Judiciary Committee report on the Bricker resolution; remarks in Rock Island (November 1956); notes on Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver (1956); report of the Senatorial Campaign Committee (1954); remarks in Philadelphia; incomplete notes on citizen action; remarks to