

Folder No.Description

- 162-166 Notebook Forty-Two (1950-65) continued: radio-t.v., "The War on Poverty" (3/29/64); remarks in Portland, Maine (3/28/64); remarks used in several towns; remarks to Grand Masters Breakfast, Belleville (5/19/63); "Medicare--The Larger Issue"; notes; "Congress and the Critics" (ca. 1964); remarks in Omaha (4/4/64); remarks to Keystone (on postcards); 4th verse of "The Present Crisis."
- 167-170 Notebook Forty-Three (1957-63). Contents: notes on legislation to charter Jewish and Catholic veterans organizations; remarks to Iowa bankers, Des Moines (10/22/63); remarks to National Association of Retail Druggists, Chicago (10/9/63); outline of political remarks; notes on budget and taxes (Saulnier); "How to Get Moving Again"; "The Katanga Story" and reference; outline of remarks given to three groups (10/9-22/63); remarks at Tax Institute dinner (9/15/63) and reference; "Foreign Assistance"; "The Test Ban Treaty"; "The Freeman Years" in agriculture; "Scoreboard"; clippings; "The Socialization of the United States"; "The Republican Position" to Republican Women (4/17/62); "The Test Ban Treaty"; "What Have They Done--How Long It Took"; "Quo Vadis"; handwritten notes for remarks to Tax Institute (9/15/63); remarks to Republican Women (4/26/63); "Can the World Endure Half Slave, Half Free?"; remarks to Chicago Finance dinner (7/25/63); remarks to Chicago Bond Club (5/22/62); remarks at Chicago physicians dinner (10/15/51); "When the Nibbling Had to Stop"; remarks to Chicago fund dinner (7/25/63); "The 1962 Campaign"; "Showdown" (Ukrainian independence); remarks to Salem Soldiers and Sailors reunion (6/27/56); "The Kennedy Depression"; clipping; remarks paying tribute to Roman Hruska; remarks to the National Convention of War Dads, Peoria (10/3/53); t.v.-radio, "The Public Debt" (4/9/54); remarks in several communities (8/12/62); "The Freedoms We Have Lost"; clipping on Cuba; remarks at Carpentier testimonial; remarks to National Confectioners Convention (5/21/63); "Political Mythology"; remarks to Republican Leadership conference upon his election as Minority Leader for third time (January 1963) outlining legislative agenda and reference; clippings; tribute to John Stennis; remarks at Decker dinner, Waukegan (4/22/63); remarks welcoming nurses to Washington, D.C.; "What Price Freedom?"; "The Decade of Paper and Trouble"; quotation; "Churchill"; copy of a letter from Maxim Litvinoff regarding Soviet Union policy after U.S. recognition (11/16/33); remarks at Charles Percy campaign dinner, Chicago; "The New Kennedy Half Dollar"; eulogy to Estes Kefauver; circular; "Madame Nhu."
- 171-177 Notebook Forty-Four (1952-61). Contents: incomplete outline (1960); clipping regarding 85th Congress' performance; remarks to Republican National Committee luncheon, Washington, D.C. (4/11/59); remarks at testimonial for Robert Michel; "The Road Ahead"; remarks to Republican Women, Washington, D.C. (4/14/59); remarks at Dirksen's birthday party (January 1960); "The Road Ahead" to U.S. Steel Corporation Sales Conference (12/8/58); "Abraham Lincoln" (1959); incomplete notes; campaign speech 3 (1960); remarks at Washington Clinic (2/20/60); 3 outlines on Civil Rights Act of 1960; clippings on defense, debt, civil rights, population; remarks at unveiling of Patrick McCarran statue; "The Forand Bill" to Tazewell County Medical Society, Pekin (12/9/59); clipping; remarks to Springfield County Chairmen (12/9/59); "Alpha and Omega," Aurora (December 1959);