

Folder No.Description

194-197

Notebook Fifty (1961-67) continued: remarks to National Republican Coordinating Committee (12/12/66); remarks at St. Louis University (2/5/67); remarks to American Advertising Federation (2/8/67) and to American Legion dinner (3/1/67); Lincoln week remarks, 1967; remarks to American Advertising Federation (2/8/67) and to the Republican Conference (1/10/67); notes on dual sponsorship of legislation; remarks to The Friendly Sons, Washington, D.C. (3/17/67); radio remarks on the Story of Creation; U.S. Chamber of Commerce list of issues (2/1/66); "Ascension"; "Can Democracy Survive or Can We Afford the Great Society?"; clippings; "Hollywood"; eulogy to Senator Edward Martin; statements made at Republican leadership meeting (3/22/67); remarks at dedication of the Vandenberg Room; "White House Photographers"; remarks proposing the Marigold as the national floral emblem (January 1967); remarks to Von Steuben Society (5/20/67); clipping and miscellany; "Proprietary"; "The Award"; "Galloping Federalism" to the Proprietary Drug Convention (5/15/67); memorandum concerning open occupancy; commencement remarks at Illinois College (6/4/67); "For the Press--A New Dirksen"; "Corn is King"; remarks to Galilee Methodist Church; remarks at Ascension School, Alexandria (4/20/67); untitled remarks labelled Reisel.

198-201

175 pp

Notebook Fifty-One (1962-66). Contents: remarks, Rapid City, South Dakota (6/4/66); "State of the Union" to Limestone Institute (1/17/65); remarks to Republican convention in Springfield (1/29/66); "The Problems of Leadership" to Brookings Institute Executives (1/24/66); Lincoln week remarks (1965); accepting Veterans of Foreign Wars Award for Public Service; Lincoln Day remarks, Springfield (2/12/63); "Lincoln" (February 1965); Lincoln address (1962); introducing Richard Nixon; remarks to Philadelphia Home Builders Association (2/2/66); press release on the bombing of North Viet Nam; "Cloture"; Masonic Library dedication, Alexandria (2/22/66); remarks at National Industrial Council luncheon (11/30/65); accepting Silver Quill award (1/27/66); political remarks; remarks to Vehicular Communications Conference; Sauliner analysis; notes on the poverty boondoggle; incomplete outline; "Section 14B and Reapportionment"; "Apportionment" (8/4/65); remarks to National Association of Manufacturers luncheon, New York (11/30/65); untitled outline (9/17/65); accepting the International Benjamin Franklin Society award; Veterans' Day remarks, Chicago; remarks to General Contractors, Washington, D.C. (3/14/66); remarks to Catholic War Veterans dinner (11/11/65); radio-t.v., (11/11/65); "There Will Always be a Crisis" to the National Grange, Topeka (11/9/65); remarks to Chambers of Commerce; remarks to school boards and administrators, Chicago (11/22/65); "Mr. Patience" introducing Dean Rusk to the Illinois Manufacturers Association (12/9/65); notes on Francis X. Morrissey nomination (October 1965); "Since You Were Last Here" to the Illinois Chamber of Commerce (4/26/65); remarks to Fisher Governor Corporation, Washington, D.C. (3/28/66); notes on reapportionment; "Time to Rethink Our History" (1966); remarks to Chicago Executives' Club; "Man Named Malthus" to Cannery; remarks to Republican precinct captains; radio-t.v.,