

Folder No.

Description

- 31-33
212 pp
Notebook Three (1940-42). Contents: "Armageddon" (1942); defense report (12/1/41); remarks to Transportation Dinner, Peoria (11/25/41); program for Latin America; "The Proposition is Peace"; First Methodist Church Dinner remarks, Peoria (11/22/41); "Union Now"; "Hold Your Opinions"; defense report (April 1942); crop statistics; air statistics (7/1/40); Princeton Forum (12/21/41); H.R. 1776, Lend Lease; action on suspending the forty hour work week (2/27/42); excerpts from constituent letters; armistice (11/11/41); unity speech; "Magnitude and Vast Distances Involved in this War: The Pacific"; defense progress report (March 1942); strikes, forty hours, wage ceilings; pensions for Congress; Grand Army Day speech; South American travelogue; Philadelphia Bank Auditors speech (4/24/42); War Department report (5/20/42); Keystone Twenty Five Year Club Speech (June 1942); Wyandot (5/13/42); Knife and Fork Club speech (1942); WMBD remarks on unity; Delavan Scrap Happy Day remarks; controversy in agriculture; Dickinson School Graduation remarks (6/11/42); Keystone Twenty Five Year Club (June 1942); comparative war expenditures; Gold Star Mothers (August 1942); "What Lies Ahead" (1942); casualty lists and their meaning; the Republican Charter (1942); Knife and Fork Club remarks (1942); Philadelphia Bank Auditors remarks (4/24/42); War Department report (10/2/42).
- 34-35
137 pp
Notebook Four (1940-51). Contents: "Housing Commission"; speech, Germania (2/24/51); "This Turbulent World," speech to Philadelphia Presbyterian Union (2/26/51); speech, Creve Coeur (2/22/51); speech to Chicago Executives Club (2/9/40); "Peoples' War Program"; "The Purge" (an effort by National Review to purge Dirksen from Congress in 1942); chronology, "Between Two Wars"; speech outline, "Sheffield and St. Bernards" (9/24-25/41); "What Price Freedom"; chronological notes; campaign remarks (ca. 1944); "Make Freedom Ring," Peoria (12/17/47); "Thirty Years and What?", Armistice Day, Peoria American Legion (11/11/48); comments about the budget; "Our Political Future" (ca. 1947); speech to Optimist Club; "Free Enterprise: The Future", in Reading and Pittsburg (4/17/44 and 6/17/44); "Revolution"; "The Stones of Elah"; "Troops to Europe" (ca. 1950); "Road to Serfdom."
- 36-39
192 pp
Notebook Five (1941, 1945). Contents: "Strengthening Congress" (1945); "What Price Freedom," to Chicago executives (11/13/45); "Realism-UNRRA-Executives"; "Ball-Burton-Hatch Bill"; "A Balance Sheet for Courage" (1945); "Post War Planning"; remarks to Transportation Club (11/25/41); Lincoln Day address (1941); "You Can't Go Home Again"; remarks to Peoria Ad Club (11/12/45); "OPA"; "Lend-Lease"; "Machines and Living Standards"; task facing Republican Party; analysis of President's speech (1945); post war inventory; remarks to York, Pennsylvania, Foremen (10/3/45); "UNRRA"; remarks in Rockford (1945); "The UNO Charter"; remarks to "Dis. Spts. Dinner," Chicago (10/7/45); "Program of the Future"; "Tailspin or Not"; "War's Lessons"; "Republicans"; "Primer for Post War Prosperity"; foreign policy in the Middle East; "UNRRA"; analysis of President's message; "Bean Soup Homecoming"; memorandum of hearings with Mr. Davis of OES; obligations of citizenship; Republican platform; "Independence Day"; "Arguments"; miscellaneous clippings.