

Folder No.

Description

- 46-47
145 pp
Notebook Eight (1942-43). Contents: "No Peace Without Victory" (5/25/42); "A Program for the Common Good" (May 1942); "Manpower and the American Farm Plant"; Easter observances; "Rationed Government"; remarks to Victory Luncheon, Peoria (12/4/42); the challenge of war; Republican Legislative Council; Kiplinger notes (11/21/42); statistics on federal personnel; Charles Beard on Congress (November 1942); remarks to Morton Selective Service Board (12/4/42); remarks on "Pearl Harbor Sunday," Pekin Presbyterian Church (12/6/42); Congressional Round Table of the Air; "Faith" (1942); "The Eleven Million Who Came to Dinner"; remarks to Rotary and Southside Businessmen (May 1943); "Victory Through Democracy" to the State High School Association, Peoria (5/1/43); "What Shall be Done with Victory?" to the Republican Post-War Policy Association; remarks in Pekin at Easter (4/25/43); remarks, IFRA, Leland (4/29/43); remarks at Easter (4/25/43); remarks to Republican Post-War Policy Association, Chicago (5/3/43); remarks on "Pearl Harbor" Sunday (12/6/43); notes regarding a Civilian Aviation Committee; speeches in Congress by Thomas Jefferson; "Glen Oak Christian" (10/7/42).
- 48-50
186 pp
Notebook Nine (1943-44). Contents: contents page; report on western campaign tour; report to Pekin (8/12/43); remarks at testimonial dinner, Pekin (11/26/43); remarks at testimonial dinner, Peoria (3/27/44); "Issues in the Fall Election," Northwestern University (4/23/44); notes on election corruption (1944) and the fourth term issue; incomplete outline on free enterprise; remarks in Reading, Pennsylvania (8/17/44); "Unity," Chester, Pennsylvania (6/22/44); campaign remarks in Maine; "Jobs"; notes on 1944 Democratic platform and on unemployment; "The New Deal and Jobs"; 1944 campaign; notes on Thomas Dewey's views; "The National Convention"; notes on peace and approaches to peace, lend lease, manpower, the Price Control Act, and the economy; "Winning the Peace"; "Peace"; "State of the Union" to Chicago Kiwanis (3/30/44); remarks to Woodlawn Businessmen; remarks to Peoria Ad Club (9/12/44), Quincy Chamber of Commerce (9/26/44), and Chicago Controllers (9/13/44); excerpts from Benjamin Franklin; final speech to the constitutional convention; "Maturity Doctrine"; Princeville homecoming remarks (7/31/43); remarks in LaSalle; remarks during the Y.W.C.A. 50th anniversary, Pekin (11/8/44); "Freedom" to AHEPA, Peoria (7/23/44); "If New Dealers Were So Smart"; "Wanted: A Pin-Up Program for P.W."; remarks in Lacon (8/13/44); "Fractions" in Granville (10/8/44); notes on David and the Philistines; "The Imperative"; notes on manpower in Illinois.
- 51-54
234 pp
Notebook Ten (1943-44). Contents: Excerpt from Congressional Record; outline of Robert Taft's program; notes on debt, bureaucracy, inflation; remarks to Peoria Chamber of Commerce, "Americanism," (12/28/43); psychological corporation poll (1943); remarks to shrine (12/25/43); notes on the Republican National Committee, postwar employment, state of the union, biblical allusions, government inefficiency, taxes; remarks to the Fifth Ward (1/5/43); notes on Wendell Wilkie's article in Ohio Republican; "Back to the 'Good