

Folder No.Description

95-100

Notebook Thirty (1949-51) continued:

Henry homecoming remarks (7/2/50); campaign in Chicago Heights; defense program notes; "Why Should They Die?"; "The Reckoning"; outline for a general speech; remarks in Belvidere; "Appeasement Road"; campaign speech; remarks on WHBF radio; remarks to Peoria rural carriers (7/6/50); notes about Lucas and politics; "The Critical Hour" in Korea; "Reverie"; remarks in Elgin; "German Day"; "Get Ready the Wreaths"; "Isolationism"; Keynote remarks; "Bewilderment"; "Hoover Facts"; platform remarks (1950) and notes; remarks in Champaign; "How Easily They Speak of War"; remarks in Champaign and Beardstown; clipping; "Republicans for Lucas"; "Mr. Pepper of Illinois"; campaign remarks in Lovington and Tuscola; "U.N.--Time to Stop, Look, Listen"; outline for short speech; radio program, WMBD (7/30/50); remarks to Palmyra Soldiers and Sailors and in Clinton (7/25/50); "What Lucas Did Not Tell Them in East Peoria"; notes on Lucas's record; "Whirling Dervish from Havana"; "Lucas and Socialized Medicine"; campaign notes; "FEPC"; memorandum and notes regarding civil rights in Missouri; notes for foreign groups; "The Man From Havana"; "Lucas Leadership"; "The Kerr Bill"; notes; "Whirling Dervish"; "General Truman and Colonel Lucas"; "The Majority Leader"; campaign notes; "The Family"; "Illinois and E.R.P."; "Cold Truth"; "Catastrophic Blunders"; "It was a Swell Party"; "Reds"; notes; campaign remarks in Palos and Glenn Ellyn; clippings; "T.V."; "E.R.P."; clipping; remarks at the State Fair; campaign remarks in Belleville (8/21/50); notes on civil rights; Dirksen-Douglas debate, Quincy, "The European Recovery Program" (9/15/49); clipping; "Crisis in Foreign Policy"; clipping; remarks in Morton and Oswego; remarks at Elgin Community Chest Dinners (5/12/49); "Whither Bound" to Chicago Merchants and Manufacturers Club (7/31/51); remarks to New York Republican Finance Dinner (12/3/51); remarks to Rockford Chamber of Commerce (11/27/51); "Who are the Isolationists?"; "Here it is Folks"; remarks in Alton; remarks at Fairview Valley High School, "Narcotics" (11/21/51); remarks to Sangamon County Bar Association (11/20/51); remarks to Western Railway Conference (11/19/51); American Forum of the Air, "How to Prevent World War III"; "The Proposition is Peace and Freedom"; "Two Party Crisis"; "Republican"; "Britain";